The fortune of the jewels of contentment and the song of the heart:

"I have attained what I wanted to attain".

Today, the love and remembrance of you children have pulled BapDada into this corporeal world with your attraction. BapDada too is seeing you children in your corporeal forms in the corporeal world. You children everywhere are seeing the Father and the Father is also seeing you children in your physical forms. In His heart, He is pleased to see you children everywhere, Wah children! He is pleased to see the worthy children of cycle after cycle. He is celebrating a meeting while seeing the fortune and attainment of every child. In His heart, He is pleased to see the fortune of every child. The sparkling fortune is visible on the face of each child. The light of attainment is sparkling on your foreheads. The treasure of knowledge is visible in your hands, and the Comforter of Hearts is visible in your hearts. On your feet, multimillions are visible in every step. Each one's face is sparkling and shining with such fortune. The form of all the children everywhere is visible as content. All the rest of the souls who see such sparkling faces wonder what you have received, what would you reply? I have attained what I wanted to attain. All of you are sparkling in the form of jewels of contentment. You can see your image in this way too, can you not? What song does BapDada sing, seeing such souls who are jewels of contentment? Wah My contented souls! Wah!

So, today, Baba has come simply to finish the complaint in the children's hearts. The complaint of all of you has finished, has it not? In the future, we will continue to meet as the drama becomes instrumental for it. Today, there is just this much, this meeting, in the drama.

All the children have looked after the chariot very well. BapDada is giving all the souls who are instruments for that service special congratulations. Now, Baba has come simply to finish the children's complaint about wanting to meet Baba. So, are all of you OK? Are all of you OK? Raise your hands! Congratulations from the heart to those who served the chariot. Wherever the chariot had to stay, BapDada saw that Gujarat is no less. Where are those from Gujarat? BapDada, together with the instrument Pandav Nirwair child, also gave a lot of support. Come!

Speaking to Sarla Didi: You did very well. Many, many congratulations to you and your companions for being instruments to look after all the Dadis.

BapDada now wants to see wonders. What wonder does He want to see? The family has many hopes in all three of you. (To Nirwairbhai, Rameshbhai and Brijmohanbhai) Now, BapDada understands that there are different ideas, but to unite those ideas is in your own hands. BapDada wants to see this wonder in you instrument Pandavas, which is: although there are different ideas, they also have to be united. So, now, all three of you have to show this wonder; that you are not three, but that all three of you are one. Everything else is fine and you are looking after everything as instruments. Achcha.

Many, many congratulations to the brothers and sisters from this land and abroad, for taking care of both instrument Dadis very well. Special congratulations for that. Baba is giving special love and remembrance from the heart to the brothers and sisters everywhere. You are constantly merged in the heart; therefore, constantly stay in remembrance and continue to inspire one another to have remembrance. Achcha.

Today, the thought that everyone had was: We want to meet, we want to meet, we want to meet. So, that has been fulfilled in terms of the body. Now, whatever is in the drama in the future, we will continue to meet.

BapDada can never stay away from the children. Just as the children cannot remain far from the Father, so the Father also cannot stay far from the children. BapDada is pleased to see all of you children. Baba is also congratulating you, because each of you now has to consider yourself to be an instrument for this unlimited task, not just for yourself. As well as for yourselves, you are also instruments for doing service. Now show such wonders. There may be upheaval in the world, but where there is upheaval you are the instruments to transform that upheaval into stability. They do not leave their work, so you too should consider yourselves to be instruments. They create upheaval and you remain unshakeable: both of you have to play your parts together. Achcha. Today, Baba has just come to meet you.

Congratulations to all you children everywhere for carrying out your respective tasks. In the future, too, each wing or each zone will continue to move still ahead of all. These are the congratulations from BapDada.

Double* foreigners: All of you double foreigners who have come, stand up! BapDada does not now say double foreigners, but double effort-makers, because, even now, such double effort-makers are increasing everywhere. You are paying attention even in the small places. Therefore, congratulations for service and also congratulations for double effort. Now, do not say double foreigners, but say double intense effort-makers. Is that OK? Double effort-makers. Double means intense effort-makers. BapDada remembers where double effort-makers have come from, but who is the farthest of all? Who is the farthest away? Those from America. They also come from this world, but where has BapDada come from? The children called and the Father became present. No matter what happens to the body, children are children; the Father always becomes present. Achcha. All of you children everywhere have played your parts very well. The Father said something and the children did it. Such children remain constantly in the Father's heart.

BapDada continues to listen to the stories of you children. Some children are not just loving, but as well as being loving, they are co-operative. They become this in every task and are also clever in accumulating for their future. This is why, just see how many countries children have come from! BapDada is pleased to see this gathering, this group of those who give a hand. He is happy, you are happy and the Father is also happy, and the family is also happy. Those of Madhuban always say that the double foreigners are the decoration of Madhuban, and it is the countries abroad who have glorified the Father's title of being a World Benefactor. This is why all of you have to be intense effort-makers. Not just effort-makers, but intense effort-makers, because now is the time for everyone to become intense effort-makers. The time for making effort has now gone, it is now time for making intense effort. So, never become an ordinary effort-maker. BapDada is pleased, the family is also pleased and is congratulating everyone. The Father is happy. See how many countries children have gathered from. Achcha.

BapDada told you earlier too that delicate times are now about to come. So, now, at the very least, make those who are in contact with you have love for the yagya. Baba also heard news about the doctors. You are doing well. However, now, you doctors have to make doctors who are in contact into loving and co-operative souls. You have made a good plan. BapDada has heard about it and expansion can take place through it; your name can spread through it. Those of the other wings who have also made VIPs emerge from everywhere have proved that you have maintained good connections. Now bring those who are just in a connection into a relationship; they must not be left out. Let it not be that the time for completion comes and the co-operative souls just remain co-operative. Therefore, bring them into a relationship now; bring them into a close relationship. BapDada has seen that, from the time the wings were created, service has spread everywhere very well. You have made good facilities. However, BapDada is now telling those of all the zones to intensify the method of creating heirs. Otherwise, you will receive complaints that they just remained cooperative. Definitely make a plan now and it will then be whatever is in each one's fortune. Many more can emerge. BapDada saw the list that everyone gives at their own time. So, according to the list, they are close and some can emerge from them. So now, try this. Achcha.

Double congratulations to those who have come for the first time. Why? Why are you being given double congratulations? Because you have created your fortune before the cries of distress of time. Instead of saying, "O God, O God", you have at least said, "My Baba!" and this is why BapDada is pleased to see those who have come. The children have come, they have come, they have come. Look, half the class is of those who have come for the first time. You will now have to make intense effort. Do not just become an effort-maker, but become an intense effort-maker. Even now, if you make intense effort, you can move forward. There is a margin for making intense effort. The time for making ordinary effort has now passed and BapDada tours around and sees all the children who are to come, whether they are moving forward or moving forward very slowly. BapDada tours around everywhere. You cannot go everywhere, but BapDada tours around every day. Those who have gone into the advance party also tour around with BapDada. Seeing all of you, they are pleased that their brothers or sisters have come. Therefore, continue to move forward. Congratulations to you from the whole family. Achcha.

BapDada is especially congratulating those from Madhuban for one special thing. What is that? Until now, everyone has done service very well with a lot of love. No matter how big the family is that comes, those from Madhuban become instruments for service. All the zones become co-operative, but nevertheless, they cannot do anything without the help of those who stay here permanently. This is why, each resident of Madhuban, whether you are staying down below, or at the top, in the hospital, whoever gives their co-operation and is giving it tirelessly, BapDada is giving love and remembrance to each child personally by name. Achcha. Those from Madhuban, stand up! Those who are sitting here, stand up! Special congratulations to you. Achcha.

Service of the Wings: BapDada has seen that all the wings that have been created are doing very good work in their own fields. Both the wings have sent their own lists. BapDada saw the list and is congratulating you on the basis that good souls have come into a connection or a relationship. However, according to the time, BapDada has also said today that although they are co-operative, you must now make them loving to the yagya. Make them into heir-quality souls. Baba has received a list and that is good. However, BapDada told you earlier, that each zone has to should bring all the co-operative and loving souls together from different places in your own zones. Bring them together for three days so that they can stay there, have meetings and also make programmes for the future. Bring all the co-operative souls from each zone together to a main place for all the zones. Have a meeting and fill them with special power to move forward. Congratulate them for whatever they have done so far and give them a plan to move forward because you also have to show them the way to move forward. So, let all the zones bring souls from all the wings together to a special place and we shall then see how many come to that gathering and what they will want to do in the future. If you bring them into contact in this way, they will become heirs.

Blessing: May you constantly experience the Father's Company and become ignorant of hard work and an embodiment of supersensuous joy and bliss.

When a child is in his father's lap, he does not experience any tiredness. However, if he were to walk by himself, he would get tired and even cry. Here, too, you children are moving along while seated in the Father's lap, and so you don't have the slightest experience of hard work or anything being difficult. At the confluence age, the souls who are constantly with Him are even ignorant of any awareness of hard work. Making effort becomes a natural action and so they automatically also become embodiments of supersensuous joy and bliss.

Slogan: Become a spiritual rose and use your spiritual attitude to spread the fragrance of spirituality into the atmosphere.

 Om Shanti *****

Avyakt signal: Experience the complete and perfect stage, the same as Father Brahma. Father Brahma always stayed in the bodiless stage, he performed actions by taking support of the body and then became detached. He became karmateet with this practice. While performing actions, you children also have to experience this as though you are doing your work, having adopted a costume. As soon as you finish your work, you detach yourself from the costume. Experience the detachment of the body from the soul while walking and moving around.
