

11/08/21 Morning Murli Om Shanti BapDada Madhuban

Essence: Sweet children, the Father is the sweetest Saccharine of all. Therefore, renounce everything else and remember the one Father and you too will become sweet saccharine.

Question: With what sanskar are you filling yourselves by taking shrimat from the Father?

Answer: The sanskar of ruling a whole kingdom in the future without the need of an adviser. You have come here to receive shrimat for ruling your future kingdom. The Father is giving you such shrimat that there won't be any need for you to take advice from anyone for half the cycle. It is those whose intellects are weak who need to seek advice.

Song: You are the Mother and the Father.

Om shanti. You sweetest, spiritual children heard the song. Who said: Sweetest, spiritual children? It must surely have only been the spiritual Father who said it. You sweetest, spiritual children are now sitting personally in front of the Father and He is explaining with a lot of love. You now know that no one in the world apart from the spiritual Father can give happiness and peace to everyone or liberate them from their sorrow. This is why people continue to remember the Father at times of sorrow. You children are sitting personally in front of Him. You know that Baba is making you worthy of going to the land of happiness. You have come in front of the Father who makes you into the masters of the land of constant happiness. You now understand that there is a lot of difference between listening to Him personally and listening to Him while living far away. You personally come in front of Him in Madhuban. Madhuban is very well known. They have portrayed images of Krishna in Madhuban and in Vrindavan. However, Krishna is not here. Here, the incorporeal Father meets you children. You yourselves repeatedly have to have the faith that you are souls. I, a soul, am claiming my inheritance from the Father. This is the only time throughout the whole cycle to do this. This is the beautiful confluence age of the cycle. It is called the most elevated age. This is the confluence age in which all human beings become the most elevated. The souls of all human beings are now tamopradhan and they are once again becoming satopradhan. When souls are satopradhan, people are most elevated. When souls are tamopradhan, people are degraded. The Father of souls sits here and personally explains to you. It is the soul, not the body, that plays a whole part. A part is played when both a soul and a body come together. It is in your intellects that you souls are originally residents of the incorporeal world, the land of peace. No one knows this. They neither understand it themselves nor are they able to explain to others. The locks on your intellects have now opened. You understand that souls truly reside in the supreme abode. That is the incorporeal world. This is the corporeal world. Here, all of us souls are actors. We are the first ones to come to play our parts. Then, others continue to come down, numberwise. Not all actors can come down at the same time; different types of actors continue to come. All come together when it is the end of the play. You have now received the recognition that souls are originally residents of the land of peace and they come down here to play their parts. The Father doesn't come to play His part all the time. We are the ones who become tamopradhan while playing our parts. You children now enjoy yourselves a great deal by listening to Baba face to face. There isn't as much pleasure experienced by reading the murli. Here, you are personally in front of Him. Those who belong to the golden-aged original eternal deity religion come first. You know Bharat used to be a place of gods and goddesses and it is no longer that. Since you see images of them, it must definitely have been like that. We deities existed first. You would remember your own parts, would you not? Or, would you forget those? The Father says: You played those parts. This is the drama. The new world then becomes old. The souls who come down from up above at the beginning enter the golden age. All these things are now in your intellects. You are the ones who came to play those parts at the beginning of the golden age. You were emperors and empresses, masters of the world. It used to be your kingdom. Now there is no kingdom. You are studying how to rule a kingdom. There are no advisers there;

there is no need to give anyone advice. You become the most elevated beings by following shrimat, so there is no need to take advice from anyone there. If you had to take advice from anyone, it would be understood that your own intellects were weak. The shrimat you receive now also remains with you in the golden age. Your souls are now becoming fresh. Your children now have to become soul conscious. You have come here from the land of peace into the "talkie" world. Actions cannot be performed unless you come into the "talkie" world. These matters have to be understood. Just as the Father has all the knowledge, so you souls too have knowledge in you. The soul says: I shed a body and take another according to my sanskars. There is definitely rebirth. A soul continues to play the part he has received and continues to take rebirth according to his sanskars. The degree of purity of each soul continues to decrease day by day. The word "impure" is used after the copper age. However, there is already a slight difference, just as there is a slight difference between a new building and one that has become a month old. You now understand that Baba is giving you the inheritance. The Father says: I have come to give you children the inheritance. You will receive a status according to the efforts you make. The Father doesn't differentiate between anyone. He knows He is teaching you souls. Each of you souls is making effort for yourself. There isn't any vision of male or female here. All you children are claiming your inheritance from the unlimited Father. All you souls are brothers and the Father is teaching you and giving you the inheritance. Only the Father speaks to you spiritual children and says: O My beloved, long-lost and now-found children, having played your parts for a long time, you have now come and met Me to claim your inheritance. This too is fixed in the drama. Your parts are fixed from the beginning. You actors continue to act while playing your parts. Souls are imperishable and have imperishable parts recorded within them. The bodies continue to change. Souls become impure from pure. They are pure in the golden age. This is called the impure world. The land of happiness is now being established. All the rest of the souls will reside in the land of liberation. The unlimited play has now come to an end. All souls will return home like a swarm of mosquitoes. What would be the value of a soul who comes down now into the impure world? In fact, there is value of the first souls who come down to the new world. That new world has now become old. Deities existed in the new world where there was no mention of sorrow. Here, there is infinite sorrow. The Father comes and liberates you from the old world of sorrow. This old world definitely has to change just as there is night after day and day after night. You understand you will truly become the masters of the golden age, so why should you not have the faith that you are souls and remember the Father? Some effort has to be made! It is not easy to attain a kingdom. You have to remember the Father. It is a wonder of Maya that she makes you forget again and again. You should create a method for this. It isn't that remembrance will become stable just because you belong to Me, otherwise, what effort would you make? No, for as long as you live, you must continue to make effort and drink the nectar of knowledge. You also understand that this is your last birth. Renounce the consciousness of your body and become soul conscious. Live in the household with your families but definitely make effort. Simply have the faith that you are a soul and remember the Father. "You are the Mother and the Father." All of that praise belongs to the path of devotion. You simply have to remember Alpha. I alone am the Saccharine. Therefore, all of you have to renounce everything else and also become very sweet saccharine. You souls have now become tamopradhan. Therefore, in order to make yourselves satopradhan, stay on the pilgrimage of remembrance. Tell everyone to claim their inheritance of happiness from the Father. There is happiness in the golden age. The Father establishes the land of happiness. It is very easy to remember the Father, but there is a lot of opposition from Maya. Therefore, try and remember Me and the alloy will be removed. 'Liberation-in-life in a second' is remembered. Everyone has to repeat his or her part in this drama. We have the biggest parts in this drama. We are the ones who receive the maximum happiness. The Father says: Your deity religion is one that gives a lot of happiness. All the rest will go to the land of peace after settling their karmic accounts. Why should we go into more expansion? The Father comes to take everyone back home. He takes everyone back like a swarm of mosquitoes. The bodies will be destroyed and the imperishable souls will settle their karmic accounts and return home. It isn't that a soul becomes pure by being put in a fire. Souls have to become pure with yoga in the form of remembrance. This is the fire of yoga. They created a play showing how Sita went through fire. It isn't just one who has to go through fire. The Father explains: All of you Sitas are impure at this time. You are in the kingdom of Ravan. Now become pure with remembrance of the one Father. There is only one Rama. When people hear the word “fire”, they think that she went through fire. There is a vast difference between that fire and the fire of yoga. Souls become pure from impure by having yoga with the Supreme Soul; there is the difference of day and night. All souls are Sitas. They are in the jail of Ravan, in the cottage of sorrow. Happiness here is like the droppings of a crow. There is a lot of happiness in heaven. You children should therefore fill your aprons with the jewels of knowledge. You shouldn't have any type of doubt. When you become body conscious, many types of question arise. You then don't do the business that the Father gives you to do. The main thing is that you have to become pure from impure. There is no need to create any other thoughts. This is the impure world and that is the pure world. The main thing is to become pure. No one knows who makes you pure. When you tell people that they are impure, they become upset. None of them considers themselves to be vicious. They say, “All are householders. Rama and Sita and Lakshmi and Narayan also had children. They have children there too.” They have forgotten that is called the viceless world. That it is the Temple of Shiva. The Father continues to show you children so many tactics. That One is the Father, Teacher and Guru who grants everyone salvation. Outside, when a guru dies, his child is made to sit on the gaddi. How could he take you into salvation? Only the One is the Bestower of Salvation for All. There is degradation in the kingdom of Ravan and salvation in the kingdom of Rama. The Father purifies everyone and takes them back home. Then, no one becomes impure instantly; they continue to come down, numberwise, from the satopradhan stage through the sato, rajo and tamo stages. You have the cycle of 84 births in your intellects. You are now like lighthouses. You now have the knowledge of this cycle and how it turns. You children now have to show everyone else the path. All of you are an army. You are the pilots who show others the path. Tell everyone: Now remember the land of peace and the land of happiness and forget the iron age, the land of sorrow. We are showing you a very good path. Only the one incorporeal Father is the Purifier. By remembering Him, you will become pure. The rust covering you souls will be removed. God speaks: Manmanabhav! God Shiva speaks: Those who have non-loving intellects at the time of destruction are led to destruction, whereas those whose intellects have love for the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, at the time of destruction are led to victory. The more love your intellect has, the higher the status you will claim. You will not be able to claim a high status by becoming body conscious. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Fill your aprons with jewels of knowledge. Don't have any type of doubt. Make effort to remember the Father as much as possible and become pure. Don't go into the expansion of questions.
2. Have true love for the one Father and become sweet saccharine, the same as He is.

Blessing:

May you be a master and a child who gives regard to each one's advice and receives regard from the whole world.

Whether someone is young or old, definitely give regard to each one's advice because to reject anyone's advice means to reject yourself. Therefore, even when you have to cut someone off from speaking waste, first of all, give regard to them, give respect and then give the correction. This is the correct method. When you are filled with the sanskar of giving regard in this way, you will then receive regard from the world. For this, be a master and a child, a child and a master. Let your intellect be in the unlimited, full of benevolent wishes.

Slogan: Always to apply the tilak of awareness of the Company is the sign of “suhaag” (being wed).
