Morning Murli Om Shanti

BapDada

Madhuban

Essence: Sweet children, have love for souls. While walking and moving along, practise: "I am a soul. I talk to souls. I mustn't do anything bad."

Question: Which of the Father's orders must Brahmins definitely follow for as long as the sacrificial fire created by the Father continues?

Answer: The Father's order is: Children, for as long as this sacrificial fire continues, you definitely have to remain pure. You Brahma Kumars and Kumaris who are the children of Brahma must never indulge in vice. Anyone who disobeys this order incurs severe punishment. When someone even has an evil spirit of anger, he is not a Brahmin. Brahmins have to remain soul conscious and never become influenced by vices.

Song: O Traveller from the faraway land.

Om shanti. No one, apart from you Brahmins, knows the Traveller from the faraway land. People call out: "O Supreme Father, Supreme Soul, the One who resides in the supreme abode, come!" They call Him the Father but it doesn't enter their intellects what the Father's form is or what a soul is. They also understand that a soul is like a star in the centre of the forehead. They don't know anything else. We souls have parts of 84 births recorded within us. People don't have any knowledge about any of these things. They don't even know how a soul enters a body. It is when there is movement inside the womb that you become aware that a soul has entered. When you say, "Supreme Father, Supreme Soul", it is the soul that says "Father". The soul knows that his body was given by a physical father. Our Father is that incorporeal One. Surely, our Father would also be a point like us. People also sing His praise. He is the Seed of the human world tree. He is the Ocean of Knowledge and the Purifier. However, it doesn't sit in anyone's intellect how big or small He is. Previously, you too didn't have in your intellects what a soul is. Although you used to remember the Supreme Soul, you didn't know anything. The Father is incorporeal. How is He then the Purifier? What magic does He perform? He definitely has to come here to purify the impure. Just as we souls reside in a body, similarly, the Father, who is incorporeal, also has to enter a body. This is why people celebrate the night of Shiva or the birthday of Shiva. However, no one knows how He comes and purifies us and this is why people say that He is omnipresent. Whenever you go to an exhibition or to give a lecture somewhere, first of all give the introduction of the Father and then of souls. Each soul resides in the centre of a forehead. All the sanskars are in the soul. The body is destroyed. Whatever you do, it is the soul that does it. The organs of the body work with the support of the soul. The soul becomes bodiless at night. It is the soul that says, "Today, I had a very good rest." Or, "Today, I wasn't able to rest at all." "I am doing this business through this body." You children should instil this habit. It is the soul that does everything. When a soul leaves his body, the body is called a corpse; it is then of no use. When a soul leaves his body, the body then has a bad odour. They then take that body and burn it. Therefore, your love is for souls. You children should have the pure pride that you are souls. You have to become completely soul conscious. All the effort is required for this. I, this soul, mustn't perform any bad actions through these organs. Otherwise, there will have to be punishment. All the suffering is experienced by a soul when he has a body. A soul without a body cannot experience sorrow. So, first become soul conscious and then become God conscious. I am a child of the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul. People say that God created them. He is the Creator, but no one knows how He creates. You now know how the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, establishes the new world while living in the old world. Just see what a wonderful method this is. Those people have shown annihilation taking place. They say that a little baby boy came floating on a pipal leaf, but they don't show a little baby girl. That is called ignorance. They say that God created the scriptures. Vyas cannot be God. Does God sit and write scriptures? It is remembered of Him that He explains the essence of all the scriptures. However, no one can benefit from studying those Vedas or scriptures. For instance, those who have knowledge of the brahm element think that they will merge into the brahm element. However, brahm is the element where souls reside. Because of not knowing this, they say whatever enters their minds and other people continue to say that that is true. Many people do hatha yoga and breathing exercises, etc. You cannot do that. Why should you delicate daughters and mothers be given that trouble? Earlier, women never studied politics. They would be sent to school to learn a language, but they didn't have to go to work. Now, women have to study. Otherwise, when there isn't anyone else to earn an income, the women wouldn't be able to stand on their own feet. They shouldn't have to beg. Otherwise, generally, daughters are taught housework. Now they study to become barristers and doctors. Here, you don't have to do anything else. First of all, simply give the Father's introduction to anyone who comes. Everyone calls the incorporeal One Shiv Baba, but no one knows what His form is. Brahm is an element. For instance, the sky is so vast; you cannot reach its end. In the same way, there is no end to the element of brahm. We souls reside in only a small part of it. All the rest is just space. The ocean too is vast; it has no limits. You cannot reach the end of space. Scientists try to go up there, but while they are going there, their fuel is used up. In the same way, the great element is very big. When you go there, there is no need to search for anything. There, souls don't even need to have that thought. What would be the benefit of searching for something there? For instance, they go to search for a world in the stars, but what benefit is there in that? That is not the way to find the Father. Devotees perform worship to find God. So, they do find God. He gives them liberation and liberation-in-life. You have to search for God, but not in space where you won't find anything. The Government spends so much. This is the Almighty Government. Neither the Pandavas nor the Kauravas are shown with a crown. The Father comes and explains everything to you. Since you receive so much knowledge, you should stay very happy that it is the unlimited Father who is teaching you. You souls say that you were previously deities. You were very happy then, you were charitable souls. At this time, we have become sinful souls because this is Ravan's kingdom. Everyone is following Ravan's dictates. You are following God's directions. Ravan is incognito and God is incognito. God is now giving you directions. How does Ravan give you directions? Ravan doesn't have a form, but he has been given a form. Ravan has many forms. You souls know that you have the five vices, that you have been following devilish dictates. Both males and females have the five vices. All of these things will sit in the intellects of human beings when they know that it is the incorporeal Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, who is teaching you. God is incorporeal. Only when He comes into a corporeal form can we become Brahmins. The Father comes in the night. The night of Shiva also becomes the night of Brahma. Brahmins will be created through Brahma. Brahmins are definitely needed for a sacrificial fire. Brahmins have to remain pure while they are looking after a sacrificial fire. Even when worldly brahmins create a sacrificial fire, they don't indulge in vice. Although they do generally indulge in vice, when they create a sacrificial fire, they don't indulge in vice. Similarly, when people go on pilgrimages, while they are on the pilgrimage, they don't indulge in vice. You Brahmins too are part of this sacrificial fire (yagya). Therefore, if you indulge in vice, you become sinful souls. The sacrificial fire is still continuing and so you have to remain pure until the end. Brahma Kumars and Kumaris, children of Brahma, must never indulge in vice. The Father has issued an order: Never indulge in vice! Otherwise, a lot of punishment will be incurred. When you indulge in vice, everything is totally destroyed. Such ones are not Brahma Kumars or Kumaris, but impure shudras. Baba constantly reminds you that you promised to remain pure. If, after becoming a Brahmin and making a promise to the Father, you indulge in vice, the birth you receive will be that of a cremator. Here, there is no birth worse than that of a prostitute. This is a brothel. Both men and women give poison to one another. Baba says: No matter how many thoughts Maya brings, you mustn't allow yourself to be stripped. Some are forced. Daughters don't have that much strength. As well as purity, your behaviour also has to be very good. If your behaviour is bad, you are of no use. When physical parents have vices, the children learn those from them. The parlokik Father doesn't give you those teachings. The Father makes you soul conscious. Never get angry. At that time, you are not Brahmins, but cremators, because there is an evil spirit of anger. Evil spirits cause sorrow for human beings. The Father says: Don't do anything devilish after becoming Brahmins. By indulging in vice you make the sacrificial fire impure. You have to remain very cautious about this. To become a Brahmin is not like going to your aunty's home! No dirty actions must be performed in this sacrificial fire. There should be none of the five vices. Don't think that it doesn't matter if you get angry. If you allow that evil spirit to come, you are not a Brahmin. Some say that this destination is very high. If you're unable to continue here, you can go and become dirty. You have to remain constantly pure and cheerful in this knowledge. After becoming a child of the Purifier Father, you have to help Him; there mustn't be any vice. Some instantly renounce all vices as soon as they come here. Understand that you are a Brahmin who belongs to the sacrificial fire of the knowledge of Rudra. You mustn't perform any such action that would make your conscience bite. Look in the mirror of your heart to see whether you are worthy. We are instruments to make Bharat pure. Therefore, definitely stay in yoga. Sannyasis simply become pure, but they don't know the Father at all. Many people also do hatha yoga etc., but they don't attain anything. You know that the Father has come to take you back to the land of peace. We souls are residents of that place. We were in the land of happiness and we are now in the land of sorrow. It is now the confluence age. If you continue to churn this, you will constantly smile. Look at this child Angna (from Banglore) – he is always smiling. As soon as he says "Baba", he becomes full of happiness. He has the happiness that he is a child of Baba's. Continue to give knowledge to whoever you meet. Yes, some will even make fun of you, because this is something new. No one knows that God comes and teaches us. Krishna never comes and teaches. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. After becoming a Brahmin who belongs to the sacrificial fire of the knowledge of Rudra, don't perform any actions that would make your conscience bite. Never become influenced by any evil spirit.
2. In order to become a complete helper of the Purifier Father, remain constantly pure and cheerful. Churn knowledge and continue to smile.

Blessing: May you be a jewel of contentment with happiness in your heart and fly in the plane of everyone's good wishes.

A jewel of contentment is someone who is content with himself, with service and with everyone else. To receive the fruit of contentment by doing tapasya is the success of that tapasya. A jewel of contentment is someone whose heart is constantly happy. Happiness means that both the heart and the head are both constantly in a state of rest, in a state of happiness and comfort. Such jewels of contentment will experience themselves to be flying in the plane of everyone's good wishes.

Slogan: Only those who please the Bestower, the Bestower of Fortunate and the Bestower of Blessings, with their true hearts can stay in spiritual pleasure.

 Om Shanti *****
