04/11/26 Morning Murli Om Shanti BapDada Madhuban

Essence: Sweet children, become knowledgeable and you will become wealthy. It is Jagadamba, the world mother, who becomes the goddess of knowledge and then the princess.

Question: What shrimat does the Father give you children to elevate your fortune because He feels mercy for you?

Answer: Sweet children, remove the burden of sin on your heads with the pilgrimage of remembrance before death comes. Don't perform any sinful action. The Father has come to liberate you from the gallows of the demons of death. Therefore, don't now perform any such action.

Song: O traveller of the night, do not become weary! Your destination of the dawn is not far off.

Om shanti. You sweetest, spiritual children understood the meaning of this song. The Father has come to destroy the night of devotion and to establish the day because you called out to the Father: O Purifier, come! You understand that you were pure at one time and that you are now impure. You only ask for something that you had before and no longer have. You children know that the kingdom of pure deities did exist. You will become gods and goddesses of knowledge and then princes and princesses. Jagadamba is separate from Lakshmi; Lakshmi would not be called Jagadamba (World Mother). Only the two children of Lakshmi would call her "Mateshwari" (Mother). Here, all the people of Bharat who are religious minded call Jagadamba "Maa" (Mother). They go to the temples of the deities and worship them. You know you have performed a lot of devotion. No one else would have donated as much or have performed as much charity as you. You have performed the most devotion. While alive you have now seen your memorial. There are Adi Dev and Adi Devi, who is called Jagadamba. You now know that Jagadamba becomes wealthy. You are her children and are now studying. She is the goddess of knowledge. No one becomes a king or queen through any other knowledge. You souls know that you are the children of Shiv Baba and this one is Prajapita Brahma. Shiv Baba is establishing the new world through him. It is remembered that establishment takes place through Brahma. Understand this very well and imbibe it. It is said that a golden vessel is needed to hold the milk of a lioness. This knowledge is that of the Almighty Authority, the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul. For this too, you need an intellect like a golden vessel. In the new world, both souls and bodies are golden. You souls are now vessels of stone, and so your bodies are also like that. It is only in Bharat that they remember Shyam and Sundar, the ugly and the beautiful one, and the pure and impure ones. In no other land would they say: Come and make us impure ones pure. We say: Liberate us from sorrow and take us into peace. Your consciences say that you people of Bharat were pure and that it used to be the kingdom of Lakshmi and Narayan. No matter how great someone may be, he too falls at the feet of his guru, because the guru adopted renunciation. He renounced the five vices, and those who are full of vices therefore give regard to those who are viceless. There is praise of purity. The advisers of the kings and queens come into existence in the copper age. The kings and queens of the golden age don't have advisers. When the kings and queens become impure, they have one adviser, but they have now become very impure and so they have hundreds of advisers. This is the destiny of the drama. Baba tells you how the destiny of the drama is created. First of all, there was definitely only Bharat and then those of other religions came. The Father explains: At this time, you are gods and goddesses of knowledge. Jagadamba, the goddess of knowledge, is the daughter of Brahma. Jagadamba is knowledgeable and she therefore becomes the goddess of wealth in her next birth. The Father is now teaching you this knowledge. You know that you will become wealthy there. No one in the world knows how Lakshmi and Narayan became wealthy. Lakshmi and Narayan were Saraswati and Brahma. Brahma is Jagadpita, the world father, and so there must definitely be many Brahmins. There are so many of you Brahmins. You know that, through this knowledge, you will become very wealthy in the future. You will become goddesses of wealth; no one could have more wealth than you had at that time. This is why it is said knowledge is a source of income. Judges and barristers become that through studying knowledge. So it is an income. Some doctors receive hundreds of thousands of rupees for each case. When a king, a queen or a prince becomes ill and the doctor liberates them from his or her illness, they become very happy and give money to the doctor to build huge buildings. This is such a huge income. Therefore, a status is received by studying. This is your study as well as your business. You sweet children have now come here to make a deal. You give everything worth straws that you have and earn hundreds of thousands in return. The Father is the eternal Surgeon and is teaching you yoga in order to make you ever healthy. Baba says: I guarantee that you will become ever healthy for 21 births. So, why should you not take the medicine of such a Surgeon? That is, why should you not follow His shrimat? Obey the Father's directions! Remember Me! It is said "Continue to remember God and receive happiness and all your pain and suffering of the body will end". On the path of devotion, no one's pain or suffering is removed. When some sannyasis fall ill, they just lie there paralysed, as though they are crazy. You children know that if you follow the Father's elevated directions, you will become ever healthy. There, everyone's lifespan is on average 125 to 150 years. It isn't that from the copper age the lifespan suddenly becomes 35 years; no. At first it is 100 to 125 and then it becomes about 70 to 80 years. It has now reached the stage where the average lifespan is 35 to 40 years. Some even die young because they indulge in sensual pleasures (bhogis). You know you are now changing from bhogis into yogis. There, your lifespans will be so long that there will never be untimely death. The Father reminds you how much fortune of the kingdom you had. Ravan has now robbed you. There, there won't be any temples etc. Your slogan is: Victory for the original eternal deity religion and defeat for all other religions. That is, all the innumerable religions should now be destroyed. There, there was just the one land of Bharat. There will definitely be fewer people in the one land. You can even write: In a short time, the population of Bharat will be 900,000 and everyone else will be destroyed. One religion is now being established. There will be just one language and one custom and system in the new deity kingdom. Here, each one's custom is his own. There, there was one kingdom and one community. You can write such slogans in the newspapers. Some ask Baba for advice: Should we spend money on printing something in the newspapers? Baba replies: You may do that so people can become aware of what is happening. It is said that heaven existed 3000 years before Christ. There was one religion and one community of the sun-dynasty deities. The gates of heaven opened after the Mahabharat War. Print these things in the newspapers with the name of the Brahma Kumaris. However, you can only be called BKs when you remain pure. You called out to the Father for this, and now that He has come, make Him this promise. On the path of devotion, you stumbled so much and also had sacrificial fires, did tapasya and made donations etc. At first, you used to worship one Shiva alone. Then you worshipped the deities, and you have now become adulterated. Now, the Father is liberating you from all sorrow. The Father is giving you children this knowledge and making you so elevated, from humans into deities. In the golden age, everything you have will be golden. The Father gives you shrimat and makes you into the masters of heaven. So, why do you not follow shrimat? The Father liberates you from the gallows of the demons of death and also from the punishment of the jail of a womb. In heaven, you live in the palace of a womb. Here, it is a jail because people commit so many sinful actions. There, although the five vices don't exist, there would still be a difference between the status of a king, a queen and their subjects. People make so much effort to earn money. There, there are no advisers because you receive the reward of this time. The Father now tells you: Children, follow shrimat! I have come from the faraway land into this impure kingdom and into an impure body. This is the land of Ravan. I come and give you children your inheritance. Not to obey the directions of such a Father means to be disobedient. You should not distress yourself so much chasing after vice. Baba says: These vices cause sorrow. It is My duty to purify the impure. He explains with so much love: Eat, drink, remain happy, but remember that you have come to Shiv Baba and that you are being sustained by Him. If you wear something given by your friends or relatives, you will remember them and your status will be destroyed. You have to be sustained by Shiv Baba's bhandara, by the sacrificial fire of the

Purifier Father, and not impure homes. If you keep something given to you by someone else, you will remember them. For that, it is remembered: Whatever you remember in your final moments… Your stage should be very good. While living at home with your families, use your intellects to understand that everyone is to be destroyed. "Mine is one Shiv Baba alone". Would you ever turn the beads of the rosary of your father? I remind you children to remember Me so that you will receive a lot of power, and that your sins will be destroyed and you will become powerful. This Lakshmi and Narayan are powerful. Those who are powerful receive the kingdom. Baba relates his own example. I adopted 12 gurus and one of the gurus said: Wake up early in the morning and turn the beads of a rosary 1000 times. I said to him: Give me another time to do this; I would become tired during the day in business etc. In the same way, you also tell Baba that you are unable to wake up early in the morning. The Father says: Don't say that you're unable to remain pure or unable to stay in remembrance. If you don't have remembrance, how would your sins be absolved? You definitely do have to become satopradhan from tamopradhan. This is the last birth and so you definitely have to become pure. If you don't follow the Father's shrimat, what status would you claim? You have been calling out to Me for half the cycle. I am now telling you to become pure and to remember Me. Continue to show the path to others and also give them the message. The Father says: Manmanabhav! Death is just ahead of you. Only you are called messengers. No one, apart from you Brahmins, can become a messenger. The Purifier, Shiv Baba, has come. It is written: The one whom he enters. They don't understand that establishment takes place through Brahma. Would Prajapita Brahma exist in the subtle region? It is here that he changes from impure to pure. Establishment is carried out with the power of silence, whereas destruction takes place with the power of science. Everyone asks how there can be peace. Souls are embodiments of peace. They come here to play their parts and so how could they remain peaceful here? That peace can be experienced in the land of peace. Here, you only receive sorrow. In the golden age there are both peace and happiness. You children are now listening to Baba personally. The Father says: Impure ones can never meet Me. Otherwise, sin is accumulated by the Brahmin teacher who brings such ones here. (There is the example of the fairy in the Court of Indra.) In fact, this is the Court of Indra. All of you are different angels of this knowledge, golden fairies of this knowledge. Otherwise, the consequences would be worse. Baba strictly forbids you to bring impure ones here. Previously, Baba would always ask anyone who came here if they had made a promise about purity. They would reply: We are still making effort. Only when you have firm faith can you meet Baba. If you meet Baba and then indulge in vice, there would be one hundredfold punishment. The Father would understand that it is perhaps not in your fortune. The Father tells you how to make effort in order to create your fortune. So, what would your condition be if you don't listen to what such a Father tells you? The Father has mercy and He therefore says: Continue to correct yourself. It shouldn't be that you die while moving along. There should be the concern to remember the Father and to remove the burden of sin. Achcha. Only Shiv Baba grants everyone salvation. You cannot take a photograph of Him. He can only be seen in a divine vision. However, He can be known. Achcha.

To you sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to you spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Create such a stage that, at the end, you only remember the one Father and no one else. Let it be in your intellect that all of this is to be destroyed.
2. Correct yourself. Definitely become pure in this last birth. You should have the concern not to commit any further sin.

Blessing: May you be constantly powerful by keeping the shield of the drama in front of you and eating the nourishment of happiness.

The food of happiness makes souls powerful. It is said: There is no nourishment like that of happiness. For this, use the shield of the drama very well. If you are constantly aware of the drama, you can never wilt and your happiness can never disappear, because this drama is benevolent. Therefore, any scene that appears to be non-benevolent also has benefit merged in it. By understanding this, you will remain constantly happy.

Slogan: Those who remain distant from the dust of thinking of (par chintan) and looking at others (par darshan) are true, invaluable diamonds.

 Om Shanti *****

Avyakt signal: Experience the complete and perfect stage, the same as Father Brahma.

In order to attain completion and perfection, you have to surrender the ego of your body totally. When the ego of your body is completely broken, it can then be said that you have a completely surrendered life. The perfect stage of those who have a life of such total renunciation and complete surrender is remembered. When you have become complete, you will return home together with BapDada.
