

In the New Year, with the blessing of ‘May you be an intense effort-maker’, show your angelic form in your face. With the volcanic yoga of your form of light and might, burn all waste and donate powers to unhappy and peaceless souls.

Today, the Creator of the Brahmin family is seeing His family everywhere. It is a small family, a small world, but very lovely because it is of those who are a handful out of multimillions. Why are they lovely? Because they have recognised the Father. They have claimed a right to the Father’s inheritance. Just as the Father is lovely, so this Brahmin family is lovely too. BapDada has made the star of fortune sparkle on your foreheads from your birth, and this is why this small world is extremely lovely. All of you know this self-respect of yours, do you not? BapDada is so pleased to see each child, and so what song does He sing? Wah children! wah!

Today, all of you have come to meet the Father on this great day. Today is the day of the confluence: it is the day of farewell and also of greetings. In any case, there is the importance of a confluence. Wherever there is a confluence of an ocean and a river, it is of great importance. So, the importance of today is praiseworthy. This old year is to finish and a new year is to begin. On this day, each one of you has so much enthusiasm in your heart for the coming year. Each one of you has made a plan in your heart of what you have to renounce and what you have to become. Have you made both plans? Have you? Those of you who have made a plan for yourself to move forward and make intense effort in the coming year, raise your hands! Have you made a plan? Congratulations! Everyone knows what BapDada wants for every child. BapDada has the pure wish for every child: Let every child become complete and perfect, the same as the Father. Now, even time is co-operating with you. Each one of you has made a new plan in your own mind for yourself, have you not? You have to renounce something and you have to move forward a little. So, what are you going to renounce? BapDada has seen that, in terms of renouncing this old world and relationships, all of you pay attention to making effort for this. There is one thing that you all wish to renounce, but until now, BapDada has seen that it takes you a little effort to renounce the old sanskars. BapDada wants each of you children to cremate your own old sanskars in the New Year. All of you also want to fulfil this thought, do you not? It is the old sanskars that you refer to as your nature. “That is not my intention, but it is my nature!” So, it is not the nature of this Brahmin birth, but it is an old nature. On this day, cremate that old sanskar. Each one of you knows yourself. So, today, along with bidding farewell to the year, can you have the determined thought to renounce that sanskar? Can you do that? You do want it, it is not that you don’t want it, but it is that same sanskar that repeatedly creates obstacles in different ways, in your putting intensity into your efforts. So, BapDada wants that, along with bidding farewell to the year, on this day, you also bid farewell to that sanskar. Are you ready to do that? Those who are ready for it, raise your hands! What will you do for that? Have you thought of a plan for yourself? The best thing for that is a determined thought. You have the thought that it should happen, but there has to be that intensity (force) in your thoughts. As soon as you became a Brahmin, you promised that you were not going to take any impure food. BapDada saw that, with your determined thoughts, the majority of you have passed in this. Just as you have had the thought of not taking impure food for your body, and you are doing that practically, in the same way, you have to have this determined thought for your mind: You will never have any waste thoughts for anyone or anything under any circumstances and that you definitely must have constant good wishes and pure feelings for every soul. Thoughts are food for the mind and so, just as the majority of you have had the determined thought concerning the body, in the same way, can you not erase waste thoughts and impure feelings? In your mind, can you not have love and co-operation for every soul in your heart?

So, today, along with this old year, BapDada wants every child to bid farewell to that old attitude and vision. Can you have this determined thought? Can you? Speak! Mothers, teachers, and all the brothers still want this. Yes, raise your hands! From tomorrow, if you have any waste, wasteful feelings or wasteful intentions for any soul, you want to celebrate the completion ceremony today, do you not? Speak! Are all of you teachers ready? Teachers, raise both your hands! Raise them! Achcha. Those who haven't raised your hands, raise your hands! Those of you who haven't raised your hands, stand up! It is good. Those who will make effort but will not have determined thoughts, are there any such ones? Those who have stood up, raise your hands if you will keep the aim and make effort. While keeping your attention on the time, just think: at this time of the confluence age, you all have to attain success over a long period for the future. You have to claim the inheritance for 21 births. So, there is a vast difference between this one birth and 21 births. In this one birth, you would still have to make intense effort for a long time, for only then would you attain the attainment over a long period of time. You have love for the father and so you want to stay with him, do you not? You want to stay close to him, do you not? You want to be Father Brahma's companions and claim a right to the kingdom, do you not? Therefore, even now, you have to be equal to the father for that length of time. You already all know how much love Father Brahma has for every child. Each one says, "My Baba. Baba doesn't have as much love for anyone else as He does for me. He loves me!" So, you are experiencing the love of both Bap and Dada in this birth; and you can never say no to the one you love. So, all of you have love for Father Brahma. How much love do you have? You have a lot of love. Perhaps you may not be able to show it, but the Father knows that all the children have love for Him. It is numberwise, but BapDada still gives everyone a certificate, for every child loves Him. You have love for Him, but the Father has seen that you sometimes become mischievous. So, what does the Father do at that time? Seeing all of that, the Father continues to give special power, because He wants every child of His to be a king child. In the world, an especially beloved child would be called a "Raja-bachcha!" (royal, king child). He is not a king, but he is called a king. All of you are now king children of BapDada and, in the future too, you will be king children. At present, you have self-respect and self-sovereignty. Now, you souls are ruling over all your physical senses. So, at present, you are the masters of yourselves and you will be those who have a right to the kingdom in the future. So, you are the king children, are you not? Nod if you are this!

So, today at amrit vela, BapDada went on a tour everywhere: in this land and the lands abroad. What did He see? The majority of you sit for yoga at amrit vela. You sit with love, you have a conversation with BapDada, you sit in the awareness of soul consciousness, you even take power from BapDada. However, BapDada wants there to be newness in the coming New Year because, day by day, time is now going to become more and more delicate. At such a time, you now need to have volcanic (intense) yoga. It is now necessary to have volcanic yoga. Volcanic yoga means to be in a powerful form of light and might because, according to the time, sorrow, peacelessness and upheaval are now going to increase. This is why you now need to give powers to those unhappy and disturbed souls with your special, volcanic yoga. In return for their sorrow and peacelessness, you have to give them some powers and peace through the service of your mind. You have kept the topic for the present time: 'One family'. Now, since this is one family, accordingly, you will have to give a drop of something or other to peaceless souls. Therefore, BapDada is now drawing your attention to the need of volcanic yoga especially during the coming New Year. There is now a need for volcanic yoga. It is only with your volcanic yoga that the remaining sanskars will be burnt.

Now, your companions of the advance party want each one of you to bring the time and the time of completion in front of everyone. Now remember the return journey. Your Didi (Didi Manmohini) is reminding you: I always used to remember: "We now have to go home. We have to go home." Your Dadi is reminding you: “I always remembered that we all have to become complete and perfect, I always had this deep concern.”

So, today, especially at amrit vela, while celebrating a meeting with BapDada, they were saying: Now, on behalf of all of us, all the Dadis who have gone are all saying together: There is now a great need for volcanic yoga, whether to give peace to others or to make the Brahmin family complete. You are now the instruments to bring the time close. So, what will you do in the coming year? What will you do especially? As well as being loving and co-operative with one another, every centre will create the vibrations of volcanic yoga. As well as being loving and co-operative with one another, each one will pay attention while performing actions; you will give co-operation for whatever weaknesses still remain. Serve many other souls with your mind and especially serve your Brahmin companions with your co-operation. Only then will the desire of their hearts be fulfilled.

So, today, the advance party are reminding you from the subtle region and also telling you about the expectations in their hearts for the coming year. So, speak! You have already heard BapDada’s thought and along with that, you also heard the pure feelings of your Dadis for the coming year, did you not? BapDada gives three types of congratulations to all of you children, whether you are weak or whether you are intense effort-makers. 1) Congratulations for your new life. 2) Congratulations for the New Year. 3) Congratulations for returning to the new world as a companion.

BapDada had also said: Each one of you has to fix a time for yourself: By when will I make myself equal to the Father? Fix this internally for yourself. You know how to fix this, do you not? Today, seeing every child, BapDada is giving the blessing: In the next year, may each child be an intense effort-maker. At amrit vela, when you sit down for remembrance and when it is the time for you to get up, let your heart remember this blessing from BapDada: May you be an intense effort-maker. BapDada drew your attention to two things in the beginning, because the time of the confluence age is going to finish suddenly. 1) The time. 2) Your thoughts. Pay attention to both of these at every moment. These are the pure feelings that BapDada has for every child: In this year, what should each child become? What will you become? Whoever looks at your face, let them see from your face your angelic form. Not that “I am so-and-so, so-and-so”. Let them experience you as an angel; so, for this, you have to have volcanic yoga. No wastage! With your light and might form of yoga, burn all waste. Whoever they look at, let them only be able to see a powerful angel, because you are the long-lost and now-found children of the Father, are you not? The Father has especially selected you from so many different places and made you belong to Him. Therefore, keep the aim: I am a Brahmin who is going to become an angel. So, at amrit vela, remember this in your timetable: I am a Brahmin and so an angel. As you move along, remain in your angelic form. You like the angelic form, do you not? Father Brahma became an angel; so, follow the father!

You were given the blessing for this year. An intense effort-maker - not an ordinary effort-maker. If you make ordinary effort, you will not become a companion in the kingdom. The Father’s desire is: However many students there are who are studying the murli, however many Godly students there are, what will all of them become? Angels. All burdens will be removed. The burden of any sanskar will finish. So, what is the homework for this year? It is: Stay in the angelic form. This is known as intense effort. Now, every centre should look at the result of every student every week and see: Were they intense effort-makers? If any situation arises, be co-operative and give courage with love and make that centre and its students into intense effort-makers. Look at the result every week because the times will definitely shake.

So, today, on the day of the confluence, on the day of farewell and greetings, to all of you children everywhere wherever you may be sitting: BapDada is seeing how all of you children are seeing everything through the facilities of science and how you are becoming so happy. BapDada is giving a special blessing to all of you children everywhere: May you be a constant jewel of contentment. Remain content and make others content. Achcha.

Now, let the Dadis get together and form a new plan. What do you say? (Dadi Janki said: Baba, the month of January is very important. If everyone makes effort together in the month of January, if a plan of such service is created that “My Baba” emerges from deep within everyone’s heart... this is my feeling.)

BapDada wants some newness in the New Year. He doesn’t want the same sanskars. Let each child be visible as equal to the Father. Follow Father Brahma. There were circumstances and situations that came in front of the father too, but he still became an angel. Let each one of you have this determined thought for yourself: I have to become an angel. When you have this thought for yourself, you will pay attention to it: I have to become this. When you become this, you will spread those vibrations naturally. So, what aim have you kept for now? I have to become an angel. Speak! Is this firm? Achcha. Lots and lots of love from the heart and congratulations to you all.

Blessing: May you become a double light angel who has all accounts and all relationships with the one Father.

In order to become double light angels, stay beyond any consciousness of bodies, because body consciousness is mud, and, if you have that burden, there is heaviness. Angels are those who don’t even have a relationship with their own bodies. You have given the Father the body that the Father had given you. Once you give something of yours to someone else, your relationship with it finishes. All your accounts and all your give-and-take are now with the Father, for all the accounts and relationships of the past have finished. Only those who are such complete beggars become double-light angels.

Slogan: Use your specialities and you will experience progress at every step.

 Om Shanti ***

Avyakt Signal: Embrace the spirit of uplifting others and uplift those who have defamed you. Do not have the desire to give to others only after having received something from them. Let it not even enter your thoughts: If this one does this, then I will do this, if this one changes, then I will change; only if they change a little will I also change a little. Only those who make even beggars full of all treasures and uplift those who defame them can be filled with the feelings of uplifting others.
