Along with doing all types of service, co-operate with one another and spread waves of intense effort into the atmosphere. Become a conqueror of your mind and serve souls with your mind.

Today is a special day of love. All the children everywhere are celebrating a meeting in their loving form. All of you are also absorbed in the form of love. Today, even before amrit vela, all the children from everywhere reached here in their loving forms, carrying their garlands of pearls of love in their hearts. They were describing to the Father the many various types of feelings in their minds. You know how lovely the love of the children is. The children were speaking to BapDada of the things in their hearts in their different languages and with their different feelings, and also expressing their feelings very clearly with their eyes and their mouths (words). Seeing the feelings of love of all the children everywhere, BapDada became merged in everyone's love and the words that emerged from His heart were: Wah children! Wah! The song from the children's mouths was: "Wah Baba! Wah!" Seeing every child, BapDada was lost in the children's love and the children were lost in the Father's love.

Today, the Father was seeing the children with the vision of making the children into the masters. Today is the day of the children receiving the tilak of sovereignty. Today is the day that BapDada Himself stayed in the angelic form and made the children into instruments for world service. He Himself became the backbone and revealed the children on the world stage. Now, seeing the children's service, seeing the result of the responsibility that BapDada gave to the children, He is very, very pleased with the children and is congratulating them from His heart. Congratulations! Congratulations!

BapDada saw that, even now, every child has received the blessing that the Father gave him of being world servers with a lot of love in his heart and is doing that too. BapDada also saw the result. Every child has this deep love in his heart for "My Baba" and the Father has love in His heart, "Wah My children!" At present, the majority of the children at big and small centres have the enthusiasm to reveal the Father everywhere quickly. While touring around, BapDada saw this zeal and enthusiasm. The children at small and large centres have lots and lots of enthusiasm for service and will continue to have it in the future too. Today, on this day of love, BapDada is giving all the children in this land and abroad, as a return of their love and service, multimillionfold love and remembrance with His drishti and the love in the heart.

According to the time, the enthusiasm now to reveal the Father is gradually entering the hearts of souls as well. They understand that the Brahma Kumaris have attained something and that transformation is taking place. Previously, they used to think: "We don't know what they are doing", whereas now they are thinking: "You are doing good work. What we are not able to do, you have done successfully in your gathering." This is why BapDada is giving special love from His heart to all the children who are sitting in front of Him and all you children everywhere who are listening and watching Him. What do we have to do now? BapDada has already congratulated you for your service. BapDada now wants every child to have this zeal and enthusiasm and determined faith for making intense effort: I definitely have to become an angel, equal to the Father, because everyone has now to make the return journey with the Father. You definitely have to become an angel, equal to Him, because all of you have promised: We will return home together and go to rule together. Father Brahma has already become an angel. So, how will you return with Him? Father Brahma showed his angelic form in his life. He had so many responsibilities. Everyone has to be made into a yogi. However, all of you saw that, even though he had so many responsibilities, he remained loving and detached. He always remained a carefree emperor: no worries, but a carefree emperor. In the same way, you children also have to become equal to the Father, carefree emperors, angels. You must have this determined thought: I definitely have to become this. Or, do you think that you will become that at some point?

BapDada saw that, according to the time, to the extent that you have zeal and enthusiasm for doing service in a practical way, you also now have to have zeal and enthusiasm for yourself to become an intense effort-maker and to make others the same. Become complete and make others complete and also have enthusiasm in yourself and spread that zeal and enthusiasm into the atmosphere. Be co-operative with one another and now spread a wave of intense effort into the atmosphere. Just as you spread enthusiasm for doing service among yourselves and into the atmosphere, in the same way, BapDada now has the pure hope that you will spread this wave into the atmosphere. BapDada is pleased, but, even now, you are just making effort, whereas you now have to make intense effort. BapDada has this hope for every child and so each of you children is a star of the Father's hopes, are you not? Are you? Those of you who feel that you will become the stars of the Father's hopes and spread this zeal and enthusiasm into the atmosphere, raise your hands! Achcha. You raise your hands very well! Seeing your hands, BapDada is pleased. The majority of you raised your hands. Baba cannot see the hands of those at the back, but He can see them for those at the front. Those at the back are now raising their hands. Congratulations! Congratulations! Achcha.

BapDada has seen that, when someone's mind has zeal and enthusiasm for something in particular, then that thing is put into a practical form very well and this is why, at this time on this day of love, BapDada is giving you this homework. Every child understands that time and thoughts are wasted because of the mind. If you have ever had any waste thoughts, you would have then experienced how so much of your time and energy is wasted. So, BapDada wants to give you this homework: for two months, let each child create a method for yourself to stop the wastage of thoughts and time that take place in your mind. Each one of you must keep your chart for the next two months: How much control did I have over the waste of time and waste thoughts? This is because, now, according to the time, it will be time for all of you to serve souls with the power of your minds. For this, it is necessary to pay constant attention to your mind. It is said: Those who conquer their minds conquer the world. So, with the atmosphere of Manmanabhav, you have to finish all wastage. Are you able to do this? Will you do this? Those who can do this, raise your hands! BapDada will give you a prize. You have to look at your own result. If your mind is happy, you will share the happiness of your mind. All of you have to pay attention to claiming a number ahead of all in this effort. Then all wastage will finish. The wastage of both thoughts and time will finish. Then, in the time to come, powerful thoughts and powerful time will spread into the atmosphere.

Seeing the children, BapDada is pleased about one thing. What is that? That every child has done service, but, along with that, BapDada's signal is: Become a double king. You know that, do you not? One is to be a self-sovereign, a master of oneself, and the second is to have a right to the future kingdom. Be a master of oneself. The Father has the intoxication that there is no other father whose every child is a master of himself. All of you are masters of yourselves, are you not? Each soul is ruling himself. You are not influenced by the physical organs and senses, but you have a right to the kingdom. The Father wants every child to be a constant master of himself, not just sometimes. Can you become this? In the two months that you have been given, note down whether you remained a master of yourself, or whether you were influenced by your physical senses. Now, you have to become karmateet. The time is coming close. So, what are you going to do? While walking and moving around, you definitely have to become a master of yourself. This sanskar is definitely a sanskar of you Brahmin children. A double kingdom is self-sovereignty now and then the world sovereignty in the future. While touring around, BapDada notes down the results of the children. Now, there is a need to pay more attention to being a constant master of oneself. BapDada has given you two tasks: 1) To what extent you remain a master of yourself for the next two months. You have to look at your own result. 2) With your controlling power and ruling power over your mind, you have to finish all wastage. BapDada will give a prize to those who claim a number in this. Do you like this? You are going to do it, are you not? Will you do it? Nod. Achcha.

Today, BapDada accepted everyone's love. At amrit vela, there was the beautiful splendour of the children in the subtle region. Today, even the advance party came to the subtle region to give the love of their hearts and to receive love. They are now asking the Father: Ultimately, until when are we going to have this part? What response should Baba give? Those sitting in the first row, what reply should Baba give? What would you say? (Dadi Janki replied: I am ready.) Will you return alone? (Everyone will return together.) You have love, do you not? How can you just leave them and go to rule the kingdom? (Why did those of the advance party leave me alone and go away?) It was in their parts. They had to go. Now, you have to try and quickly prepare a gathering. If you make everyone do the work that you have been given for two months and give the result, it will happen quickly. (Out of love for Baba, they will do it.) There is love. All of you have passed in the subject of love. BapDada sees that everyone has love, but, as well as that, you also need power. For this, make amrit vela powerful. You sit for remembrance and BapDada is congratulating you for that, but a powerful atmosphere is needed to sit in. Some sit like this, some sit like that. If you were to take a photograph, you yourself would feel: Something else is needed now. BapDada has spoken of volcanic yoga and you now have to pay deeper attention to that. Everyone does make effort, but now, add the word 'intense' in front of the word 'effort'. BapDada has now given every child two months. The more attention you pay, the more help BapDada will give you for your attention. Masters of the mind, make your minds function just as you make your hands and feet function. You can do whatever you want, can you not? If you want to put something in a particular place and not anywhere else, you can do that, can you not? Have such mind control. Your mind should only have the thoughts you want it to have. Every night, check your results: To what extent did I have ruling power and controlling power over my mind. You should now put an end to waste very quickly. Now become powerful and spread the power of being powerful into the atmosphere. Seeing and hearing the children's sorrow and suffering, BapDada now wants completion to take place soon. You were told that everyone is making effort, but now add the word "intense". "I have to do it", not that I will do it or that I will see about it. This language of postponing something for the future will not work anymore.

Today, you all saw the scene of love. Each of you has so much love in your heart, but, to the extent that there is love, there also has to be power. Now, fill yourself with power. None of you sisters should consider yourself to be just a Shakti, but consider yourself to be a Shiv Shakti. You are a Shiv Shakti: the Father is with you. The Father of the Pandavas is with the Pandavas. So, what will you do now? BapDada has told you to add the word "intense" in front of the word "effort". Create such an atmosphere. Be co-operative with one another and, while staying at your own places, make your place powerful. Make your companions powerful. So, what will you do now? You will do something new, will you not? Since you say "My Baba", you have to become like the One who is "Mine" (Baba), do you not? Let each of you have this determined thought in your heart. You have very good thoughts. At amrit vela, BapDada sees that you create very good thoughts, that you will do this and that, but when you become a karma yogi, when you go into connections and relationships, it then becomes different. You now need to pay greater attention to the stage of being a karma yogi. Achcha.

All of you are happy, are you not? Are you happy? So many new ones also come. Those who are new and have come for the first time, raise your hands! Look, there are so many. Half the class is of new ones. BapDada is pleased to see the new ones who have come, because you have at least come here before the final completion. However, to the extent that you have come late, you will have to make that much intense effort, because in this short time you have to accumulate enough for your full 21 births in the future. You will have to pay this much attention. Save your time! Do not waste even a second. Remain an intense effort-maker. By making ordinary effort, it will be difficult for you to reach your destination. Nevertheless, BapDada is congratulating from His heart you children who have come. Congratulations! Achcha.

Many teachers have come. Seeing the teachers, BapDada is very pleased, because the instrument teachers have become instruments to reveal BapDada. Seeing any teacher, everyone is happy, because a teacher means the one through whose features the future is visible. What is your future? Your future is to remain constantly happy in your heart, always to have a right, not to be dependent. So, the features of the teachers give a vision of this. Let each teacher constantly think: Whether you say something somewhere or not, your features and face have to reveal the attainment of the present and the future. Constantly pay this attention: Is my face always such that it grants a vision? Anyone who comes in front of a teacher, seeing the teacher, they would firstly become happy and happiness would then become visible in their lives. You are so happy and you also have the fortune of happiness. BapDada saw that the aim of each and every teacher is good: "I have to do this. I have to become this." It is like this, is it not? What is your aim? This is your aim, is it not? So, this aim is visible in your qualifications, but it should be even more visible. Whoever comes should definitely take that happiness away with them because every human being needs happiness. They want it, but they are not able to become that. So, 'teachers' means those who serve with their features. Let them experience: "What has this one become?" Now, as you progress further, your face and activity will do this service a lot more because as the times become more delicate, you will have less time but their desire to receive something or other will increase. This is why you teachers must always remain ever-ready so that anyone who comes definitely takes away something. Let them take away something or other from your faces and activity. You are the children of the Bestower, are you not? BapDada is very pleased to see you teachers. He sings your praise in His heart: Wah teachers! Wah! Each teacher definitely does do service and you must be checking your result at night as to what service you do each day. You look at your own chart: Did I fulfil the aim of doing service that I had? If not, due to one reason or another, then do double service the next day. Do not just leave it, because a teacher means an instrument bestower, a child of the Bestower. So BapDada is pleased - no matter whether you are from a small centre or a big centre - because to come to a service place, having renounced everything, is also courage, is it not? BapDada is pleased with your courage. Now make more companions. Make more teachers emerge because service is going to increase. Now, wait for a little upheaval and everyone will come to you with a longing. Service is going to increase; it is not going to decrease.

Blessing: May you have elevated self-respect and make Maya surrender by remaining stable on your seat of self-respect.

The most elevated self-respect of the confluence age is to stay in the awareness of being a master almighty authority. When a senior officer or a king is seated on his seat of self-respect, others also show him respect. If he were not on his seat, no one would then follow his orders. In the same way, when you also become one who has self-respect and remain seated on your seat of self-respect, Maya will surrender to you.

Slogan: Those who remain stable in the stage of a detached observer and experience the company of the Comforter of Hearts are souls who are absorbed in love.

 Om Shanti *****

Avyakt Signal: Embrace the spirit of uplifting others and uplift those who have defamed you. To uplift even those who defame you is the duty of a knowledgeable soul. The father even saw defamation with benevolent vision. Even people of the world have mercy for those who have mercy, devotee souls also have that. However, to be a knowledgeable soul means to have feelings of benefit for everyone and not to have the slightest thought of causing a loss. Only when you have feelings of mercy and upliftment for those who defame you will you be said to be a world benefactor.
