

Constantly maintain your spiritual intoxication and become a carefree emperor. Become complete and equal by making intense effort and make preparations to return home with the Father.

Today, BapDada is seeing the gathering of carefree emperors. Only at this time is this gathering held, because all the children have given their worries (fikar) to the Father and have taken intoxication (fakhur) from Him. This gathering is only held at this time. From the moment that each one of you wakes up in the morning and performs actions, you remain carefree and move along as an emperor, do you not? This carefree life is so lovely! What are the visible signs of being carefree? The light of the sparkling soul is visible on the forehead of each one. How did you make your life carefree? The Father took the worries away from the lives of all you children and gave you intoxication. Those who do not have intoxication in their lives, that is, those who have worries, do not have a light shining on their foreheads. Instead, lines of burden are visible on their foreheads. So, tell Me, what do you prefer? Do you prefer a light or a burden? Even if there is some burden - burden means worry – you can give that worry to the Father and take intoxication from Him. All of you do like a carefree life, do you not? All of those who see you also prefer a carefree life.

So, today, BapDada is seeing the sparkling lights on the foreheads of all the children everywhere, whether you are sitting in front here or wherever you are sitting. So, do you remain constantly carefree or do you sometimes worry? Do you have any worries? Since the Father has made you a conqueror of matter and a conqueror of vices, how can you have any worry? So, raise your hand if you have become carefree. Have you become this forever? Have you become this forever or only sometimes? There are still those who are carefree only sometimes. You are not raising your hands. BapDada does not want to see hands for this. BapDada wants to see every child as a carefree emperor. If you sometimes have a worry, then a very easy method, when there is a little worry, is to change “mine” (mera) into “Yours” (Tera). To change this limited “mine”, to change “mine” into “Yours”, is a very easy method. You say, “My Baba”, and so what is “mine”? So, the limited mine has finished, has it not? It is now “My Baba”. All of you say from your hearts, “My Baba, lovely Baba, sweet Baba”, do you not? So, is it difficult to merge the “mine” into “Yours”? What is the difference? Just “m” and “T”: it is such a small difference. You had the thought “Everything is Yours”, so what remains mine? Mine is Baba. BapDada saw that the majority of you children have made the limited “mine” into “Yours”, and so what have you become? Carefree emperors! So, today, BapDada is seeing all of you children as carefree emperors. Look, even on the path of devotion, when they create your images, they are created with a double-crown. There is firstly the crown of light, because the sign of a carefree soul is the sparkling light on the forehead and the second crown is shown for becoming victorious over the vices. Therefore, since BapDada has taken away your worries and given you intoxication, pay attention to what you have become. Each of you has become a carefree emperor. Since you have become an emperor, you also need a throne. So, BapDada has made you a master of three thrones. Do you know which three thrones they are? One is the throne of the centre of your forehead, which everyone has. The second throne is BapDada’s heart throne and the third throne is the throne of the world, the throne of sovereignty. All of you have these three thrones, do you not? The most elevated throne is BapDada’s heart throne. Therefore, check whether you remain seated on that throne. Who can sit on BapDada’s heart throne? Those who have made BapDada sit constantly on their heart-throne, those who are constantly in their elevated stage of a master almighty authority. So, check whether you are always seated on the heart throne or whether you sometimes go into the mud. This body consciousness is the mud. Because you were in the mud for a long time, you don’t sometimes go back into that mud, do you?

So, BapDada is giving all of you children a signal of the time. He is making you make the lesson of “suddenly” very firm. This is why you have to give a lot of importance to the time of the confluence age because it is in this one birth that you have to create a reward of many births. This is why BapDada had given you a signal that you have to pay attention at the confluence age to two things at every moment. You must have remembered these two things? Time and thoughts. All of you children have kept your courage to give your waste thoughts to BapDada in your minds. So, check whether you are keeping that courage forever, because when you children keep your courage once, the Father gives a thousandfold help. So, what do you think? Is the determined thought you have placed in front of the Father with courage that you will not have any waste thoughts for ever? This is because a lot of time goes into waste thoughts and, according to the present time, your task is to give the message to the souls of the world. So, you have to finish all your waste thoughts, for only then will you be able to give the experience of peace and happiness to unhappy souls. Seeing the unhappy souls, BapDada feels compassion. You also feel compassion when you see your sisters and brothers, do you not?

BapDada saw that, at present, everyone has an interest, has made plans and has also done it practically. All the programmes that you did were very good and BapDada is congratulating you for those. However, now, according to the time, you have to make them into heirs quickly, so that they can claim at least a right to some inheritance. Many of them say that this is very good. BapDada has also seen this result from the service that you children did and the Father is also pleased with you children. You are doing everything from your hearts and now, according to the time, everyone is listening to you with interest. There is at least this much difference. They find it all very good, but you now have to make them good and enable them to claim a right to the inheritance in whatever way possible. BapDada had already signalled you earlier about this: Now, according to the time, you need to become an intense effort-maker. In order to become an intense effort-maker, the main effort you need to make is to put a full stop in a second. One second and putting a full stop should both be simultaneous. So, BapDada is now seeing the carefree emperor form of you children. You have to experience this form all the time. When anything or anyone comes in front of you, just merge “mine” into “Yours”.

BapDada saw that it is Thursday today and that many children have come to BapDada. BapDada said: Two days of the week are special: Thursday and Sunday. Thursday is the day of the Guru, so what do you receive from the Guru? Blessings! So, Thursday is the special day of blessings. Celebrate Thursday in this way. Keep one special blessing or another emerged in your intellects from amrit vela. There are many blessings, but keep one special blessing in your intellects and then check. On the day of blessings, instead of just repeating the blessing, become an embodiment of that blessing. Become an embodiment of that blessing and continue to check for how long you remained an embodiment of that blessing. In the world, Sunday, in particular, is a holiday. So, celebrate Sunday. Whatever weaknesses you have in your life - in your thoughts or even in your dreams - bid farewell to them. Just as people spend these two days very well, so you also especially have to keep this aim and its qualifications for these two days, not just the aim but also its qualifications in your attention. BapDada has promised all of you children to take you back home with Him. So, what preparations do you have to make in order to return home with Him? The Father will become bodiless in a second. However, you have made a promise and the Father has also promised that you will go back together. Therefore, check whether you have made preparations for that. Put a full stop in a second, become complete and perfect and off you go! Have you made such preparations? You all want to return with Baba, do you not? Nod if you want to go back with Baba. You want to go back. Achcha. Are you sure? To put your hand in His hand means to become equal. So, check, because that time will come suddenly. So, have you made such preparations that you can return home with Baba?

The Father loves you children, and so the Father does not want to leave any one of you behind. We are together and will remain together; we will go back together and go into the royal family in the kingdom together. Do you agree with this? Do you? Are you ready? When you are asked whether you agree, you raise your hands, but don't raise your hands for this. Raise your hands if you have made your preparations! Raise your hands high! Achcha. Would you be ready if destruction were to take place tomorrow? However, have you finished your service? There is still service left to be done. Have you completed your service? Has everyone received the message? Just check in your own area: have you given everyone the message that the Father has come and that they should claim their inheritance? You are now making plans for that. BapDada has heard that you are making plans to give the message to every home. It is good. You have to give the message, otherwise you will receive complaints. You have made the programmes. Stand up! You have shown plans to the Father, have you not? Stand up! (Baba made the Media people stand up.) It is good. Finish their complaint, because everything is going to happen suddenly. So, get together and put this plan into a practical form. You can consult one another quickly. When it takes time, your enthusiasm decreases a little. BapDada would like this complaint of every home to finish: "The Father came and we did not even know that the Father had come and He went away and we were deprived." You all have enthusiasm, do you not? Do you have enthusiasm? You have to do this service and finish that complaint. When you have enthusiasm, you also receive BapDada's help. Achcha.

All of you know what BapDada's wishes are: for you to become equal and perfect. Always check these words: Am I fulfilling the Father's hopes? BapDada considers every child to be a star of His hopes. Every child has love for the Father. BapDada knows this. What is it that brings all of you to Madhuban? All of you come in the train of love or the plane of love. So, the Father is pleased with you children in the subject of the children's love for the Father. However, you also have to become complete in the two words that Baba wants: equal and perfect. This also has to be accomplished. So, today, BapDada is seeing all of you children everywhere with so much love in His heart and is congratulating every child with love from His heart. Achcha.

Many teachers have come: BapDada always remembers the teachers and gives them love, because the teachers become instruments to make every brother and sister move forward. BapDada calls the teachers "gurubhai" (next in line to the guru). Gurubhai means equal, because just as the Father's duty is to remain constantly busy doing service, in the same way, the worthy teachers are those who are servers, the same as the Father, and are constantly embodiments of success who make others into embodiments of success. BapDada always has great love for the teachers in His heart. Why? A teacher means a constant server, always one who makes others equal to the Father and also one who gives the introduction of the Father to new ones, and makes them experienced and worthy of claiming an inheritance from the Father. So, BapDada is pleased with the teachers. The love that the teachers have for the Father in their hearts - they fill the students with that love and enable them to claim a right to the inheritance. The Father has hopes in each of you teachers that you will fulfil the hopes that the Father has and reveal what the Father wants. This is why BapDada is giving each one of you teacher multimillionfold congratulations. He is giving you congratulations. Achcha.

To Double Foreigners: BapDada has seen that you double foreigners are no less than the souls of Bharat in doing service. BapDada is pleased to see how you are all expanding service in your own places and are also moving forward with zeal and enthusiasm by yourselves. It is the sanskar of double foreigners that whatever they do, they do it with zeal and enthusiasm and they complete it, and they also pay attention to their efforts. All of you raise your hands to all being intense effort-makers. Are you intense effort-makers? Achcha. Also, many, many congratulations on behalf of everyone. Why? An intense effort-maker means one who fulfils BapDada's hopes in a practical way. So, BapDada is congratulating you for your intense efforts. You are intense effort-makers and will always be intense effort-makers and also make others into intense effort-makers. All the lands abroad will then come into the list of intense effort-makers. You have this record to some extent, but you still have to show this. However, BapDada is congratulating you for your efforts. You pay attention to the murli. BapDada likes it that you have love for the murli. You also have love for Madhuban. You have love for the murli. You have love for the family and you also have love for “My Baba!” You are now also paying attention well to making subtle effort. BapDada has seen that the child Janak has also paid a lot of attention to the foreign countries. Although she lives here, her every class first goes abroad. So, you are receiving very good sustenance. This is also your luck. You are both the luckiest and also the sweetest. Achcha.

To those who have come for the first time: There are many of you. You can wave. All of you have reached your own home of Madhuban. BapDada is congratulating each of you children for this, because you have reached here before the final period. You have the chance of coming last and going fast. BapDada is happy to see you children. You are welcome. So now make intense effort, move ahead and have the determined thought to go ahead of all. Determination is the key to success. BapDada is giving a special gift of the key of determination to all of you children who have come here today. Never let your determination become slack. Determination will constantly and easily enable you to move forward. BapDada is pleased. Welcome! You have come to claim your inheritance. Many, many congratulations for this. Achcha.

BapDada is giving love from His heart and the elevated thought to all you Brahmins everywhere that you move constantly forward. The Father is seeing each of you children and is also merging you in His heart on seeing you. Those who are sitting close are seeing BapDada in front of them, and the rest of you are seeing the Father in front of you through the facilities. Wherever you are sitting, BapDada is also seeing you as though you are in front of Him and is giving each of you love from His heart. Continue to move forward. Make intense effort and continue to move ahead of all. Achcha. To all those who are sitting in front of BapDada, love and remembrance and congratulations for constantly moving forward. Congratulations! Congratulations! Achcha!

Blessing: May you become a worthy image that grants visions and prove it by putting all the teachings into practice.

The children who do not just keep those teachings in their intellects in the form of teachings, but also put them into practice, remain stable in the stage of an embodiment of this knowledge, an embodiment of love and an embodiment of bliss. Those who put every point of this knowledge into practice are able to remain stable in the point form. It is easy to think about or speak about a point, but to become that and give that experience to other souls is to prove it. This is what it means to become a worthy image that grants visions.

Slogan: Increase your power of concentration and the wandering of your mind and intellect will stop.

 Om Shanti ***

Avyakt Signal: Now reveal your form of a bestower. When a weak soul comes in front of you, give that weak soul power. Give that soul the inheritance of all powers that you have received. Become a bestower and give the Father’s treasures to all souls. Use your own powers to give thirsty and desperate souls the donation of life. Become a bestower of blessings and, with blessings, bring them into a close relationship with the Father. By using your sanskars of a bestower here, you will be able to fill yourself with the sanskars of a royal status, that is, of a bestower for 21 births in the future.
