Morning Murli Om Shanti

BapDada

Madhuban

Essence: Sweet children, by having love and regard for the Father, you will continue to receive the Father's blessings and the rust of Maya will continue to be removed.

Question: Why is it that some buds in this living garden do not come into bloom at all, but remain buds all the time?

Answer: Because there is laziness in their efforts. They remain sleeping at the time of remembrance. Those who remain sleeping waste their time like that. Those who remain sleeping lose everything. They remain closed buds. Constantly blooming roses are those who have all-round parts in the deity religion.

Song: This time is passing by.

Om shanti. Who explained this? The unlimited Father explained to you children. Only a short time, that is, only a few more minutes of the unlimited time remains. The hours have gone by; now only a few minutes remain. The good sensible children know this; it is numberwise. Roses are also numberwise. There are roses here, too, but some are closed buds and some have opened a little. Your deity religion is like roses in bloom; they are the ones who always play all-round parts. You are constantly the roses in bloom of the highest of all religions. Those of other religions are numberwise. Some are like magnolias, some like jasmine, some like tangars (other fragrant flowers) and others are like ucks (those with a bitter smell). There is this garden. This is a garden of all religions. You daughters know that the highest-on-high religion is that of the deities. When it is not the season, there aren't even tightly closed buds nor any buds nor flowers. (Baba had brought various flowers from the garden – a big rose, a small rose, another small flower, one half opened bud, one bud, a closed bud and a newly-born bud – and placed them on the gaddi.) Look, among the closed buds, some are still weak, some have only half opened. Some are flowers and others are closed buds. Some wilt and they don't bloom at all. It is truly like that, is it not? So, the Father says: Don't be lazy in your efforts. Make sure you don't just remain a bud. Some only reach half-way; it is numberwise. It is understood what status someone would claim in that situation. There is very little time. A clock has been made, but the hands of the clock cannot be changed. You should create it cleverly so that that sign remains. The hands began here and have now reached here. The hands start at zero and will finish at 12. So, in this cycle too, the deity religion emerged first and it is now the end. You would begin to count from the time the Father came. Therefore, the Father says: Children, don't waste your time. Continue to remember the Father. To the extent that you remember Him, so your sins will be absolved. Everyone continues to commit sin. None of you should think that you don't commit sin; no one should have that much arrogance. There are many incognito sins committed. You have to be very cautious about these. From this clock, you become aware of the time. People think that the iron age is still a child. They are totally in extreme darkness. You now have to revive the corpses. You should wake up early in the morning and remember the Father. Those who remain sleeping lose out, that is, you mustn't waste time that is for remembrance. Otherwise, you will remain like corpses. Some remain buds. In storms, even good buds fall. Flowers as well as buds fall. They remain as they were, like thorns. They will become part of the deity dynasty, but as subjects. You belong to the rose tree, but you mustn't become happy with just that. Although people say that so-and-so went to heaven, what did he become? There must be a reason for that. You children understand that you will become most beloved to the extent you are a most serviceable child of Baba's. This is something common. Worthy, obedient and honest children are loved by their parents. Maya makes you completely dishonest. You are not able to realise when you make a big mistake. The Father says: Those who do something definitely have to receive the reward of that. You mustn't commit any sin for which you would have to experience punishment. Some experience the punishment of their sins here. There is the suffering of karma. There is the suffering of karma in the jail of a womb. You have to be liberated from that by taking great caution. Maya is very devilish and this is why you should continue to remember the most beloved Father at every moment. Just as a physical father knows his children, in the same way, the spiritual Father also knows each and every child. The Father Himself sits here and tells you: I only come into this one body. There are so many children, and many more will come. The tree continues to grow. There will be a crowd of devotees in front of God. There wouldn't be as great a crowd in the Shiva Temple. Here, you understand how many crowds there will be. The sun and moon dynasty kingdoms are to be established. You need a very broad and unlimited intellect for these things. When God truly comes in front of the devotees who perform so much devotion, there will be such great crowds. You know that Baba is teaching us Raj Yoga, though you still forget Him while living at home. This is so unique, even though you live together, you forget, there isn't that much love and regard. If a needle is rusty, a magnet couldn't pull it. Only when there is knowledge and yoga can the rust be removed. You also need God's blessings. Souls are covered with the rust of Maya. Anything that is rusty is immersed in kerosene. Your rust is removed by yoga and your souls also become pure. Therefore, the Father explains: Children, make yourselves into flowers. The time will come soon when whoever you sit in front of will begin to have visions. So many have visions of Brahma or Vishnu. They give them a direction to go to the BKs. Brahma is sitting there along with the Brahma Kumars and Brahma Kumaris. As you progress further, many will have visions. Baba gives a vision: Go there. I am teaching Raja Yoga there and, through that, you can claim such-and-such a status. This is a matter of a second. Manmanbhav, remember Me and you will become part of the sun dynasty. There, it is the deity clan whereas here, it is the devilish clan. This is explained to you so clearly. In order to make something fine, it is ground. They make so much effort to make the foundation of a building strong. The Father also says: Remember Me as much as possible. Remember the land of Shiva and the land of Vishnu. Continue to talk to yourself internally in this way. First think about these things, then talk to yourself about them in order to understand and explain to others. Some children make so much effort for exhibitions. It's a matter of explaining. No one would be able to understand with just slogans. The Father sits here and explains how the deities received their kingdom. Who taught them Raj Yoga? God speaks: I teach Raj Yoga. I tell you to remember Me. Remember the land of Shiva and the land of Vishnu. You children now have to explain very clearly at the exhibitions. You also have to explain about meditation. We also practise meditation. While walking and moving around, we remember the Father and continue to talk to Him. When you go to a programme, your intellect is aware: Today, I have to go to so-and-so. As soon as you receive a programme, your intellect runs there. When the time comes close, you will understand that you now have to go there. You should also feel internally: That's it! We now have to go to Baba. We have to shed these old skins. We have to leave this land of Ravan and go to the land of Shiva. This world is very dirty. We are now sitting at the confluence age. These are iron-aged bodies. Baba says: Remember Me and I will take you souls to the land of Shiva. Shri Krishna will not take you there. These matters have to be explained. Now the Father says: Remember Me, Shiv Baba. You are now studying Raj Yoga. You have to go to the land of Shiva and you will then automatically go to the land of Vishnu. It is easy to explain this. You will go from the land of Shiva, the land of liberation, to the land of Vishnu, the land of liberation-in-life. The Father of all is the One. You have to explain this main thing. No matter how many slogans etc. you make, that is unnecessary expense. You have all the pictures etc. In Karachi, so many used to come to you. You used to keep a table and chair outside on the big area of ground. You would sit and explain to whoever came there. Previously, there wasn't that much knowledge. You have now received easy knowledge. You also know the Father. The Father is the Creator of heaven. His order is: Remember Me and the inheritance. Show them the picture and explain. Previously, when you used to explain the pictures, while they were listening to you they would go into trance. At that time, you were small buds. All of that was Baba's magic. He used to pull the strings. There is now a great need to explain everything. Nowadays, people are very bad. You cannot tell what someone's occupation is unless you ask him to fill in a form. Just as there are those teachers etc. who teach you how to become a barrister, so too, this unlimited Father is such a great Teacher. Those teachers would perhaps make you into a barrister. However, if you shed your body while studying, everything you had studied to become a barrister would finish. It isn't that that study will continue in the next birth. Whatever you do here, you take that with you. A soul has sanskars within him. Yes, little children have small organs and are therefore unable to speak. They are unable to do anything with their physical organs, though they do carry those sanskars with them. This knowledge is imperishable, therefore they will come and take knowledge when they grow older. Those souls will definitely come here again. They will bring benefit to someone, somewhere. They will pull their parents in this direction. Although they will be small children, as soon as they see Mama and Baba, there will be a pull of that love. Because their physical organs are small, they wouldn't be able to speak, but there would be that love for their equals. So, this knowledge is very unique, entertaining and simple. Some are such that they remain as they are, like thorns. The golden age is a rose tree. You are now thorns. Some closed buds will emerge. There are those who are constant roses, they are still numberwise. They will become part of the subjects. To become a bud and then wilt and die is as though you have not studied. If a bud remains closed, that one will end up among the subjects. Those who become flowers will become part of the kingdom. When Baba goes into the garden, He brings back flowers in order to explain to you children. If you don't make effort and become a flower now, you will have a lot of repentance later on. Firstly, there is already the burden of the sins you have committed on your heads. Of what use is it to experience punishment and claim a status among the subjects? You understand that your deity kingdom is being established. Baba can understand what each one of you will become. It will remain in His heart to what extent you study and what you will become. If someone studies well, He will continue to have that love internally. He would understand that you will become part of the kingdom. As you progress further, you will have many visions. Those who don't study will repent a lot at that time. There is very little time left. How will you be able to gallop sufficiently? The Father says: If you perform sinful actions after becoming a child, there will have to be one hundred-fold punishment. It becomes the business of many thieves who go to jail: to experience punishment and go to jail. You are now making effort to become the highest-on-high sun-dynasty emperors and empresses. It is numberwise. What will the condition be of those who run away? The Father explains to you so well, but if it is not in your fortune and you don't understand, what can the One who inspires you to make effort do? The Father says: Become a flower. Don't forget the Father. Never let go of the hand of such a Father. Maya, the snake, will swallow you raw. Don't become careless so that you lose your fortune of the kingdom. Your activity of every cycle would then be seen to be the same as your activity of this time. Some have satopradhan, some have rajo and others have tamo behaviour. Some very good children have very severe omens over them. Internally, they are ugly whereas externally they look good. If you souls become careless, you will become ugly. There will then be dark shadows. This is why Baba says: Hear it through one ear and let it out through the other: close your ears to anything evil. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Constantly have the deep desire to have your sins absolved. Take care that you don't commit any sins now.
2. In order to remain safe from the eclipse of the omens of Maya, close your ears to evil things. Make sure your behaviour is satopradhan. Remain clean inside and out.

Blessing: May you reveal your blissful life and become worthy of receiving everyone's blessings by keeping a balance.

To keep your balance is the greatest skill. When you have the balance of remembrance and service, you will continue to receive the Father's blessings. By keeping your balance in everything, you will easily become number one. Your balance will reveal to many souls a blissful life. Continue to experience all attainments while constantly having this balance in your awareness and you will continue to move forward and also enable other souls to move forward.

Slogan:

A mahavir is one who makes anything difficult easy and a makes mountain into a mustard seed or cotton wool.
